

As a flight attendant for a commuter airline, we have trouble with passengers not wanting to turn their cell phones off when the aircraft door is closed. If you give our passengers more freedom, they will take a mile!!